

In my community we have a local radio station which plays programs by community members, announces community events, gives exposure to youth programming, has a diverse arts and news, health, science, history, political discourse, city council meeting coverage, and many other features that make it an indispensable part of our lives. It can't exist without low frequency FM. Please keep these air waves available to the public.